The Collect of the Day

Celebrant The Lord be with you.

People And also with you.

Celebrant Let us pray.

The Celebrant continues

Almighty God, give us grace to cast away the works of darkness, and put on the armor of light, now in the time of this mortal life in which your Son Jesus Christ came to visit us in great humility; that in the last day, when he shall come again in his glorious majesty to judge both the living and the dead, we may rise to the life immortal; through him who lives and reigns with you and the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

People Amen.

Please be seated.

The First Lesson

Isaiah 64:1-9

O that you would tear open the heavens and come down, so that the mountains would quake at your presence - as when fire kindles brushwood and the fire causes water to boil - to make your name known to your adversaries, so that the nations might tremble at your presence!

When you did awesome deeds that we did not expect, you came down, the mountains quaked at your presence. From ages past no one has heard, no ear has perceived, no eye has seen any God besides you, who works for those who wait for him. You meet those who gladly do right, those who remember you in your ways. But you were angry, and we sinned; because you hid yourself we transgressed. We have all become like one who is unclean, and all our righteous deeds are like a filthy cloth. We all fade like a leaf, and our iniquities, like the wind, take us away. There is no one who calls on your name, or attempts to take hold of you; for you have hidden your face from us, and have delivered us into the hand of our iniquity. Yet, O Lord, you are our Father; we are the clay, and you are our potter; we are all the work of your hand. Do not be exceedingly angry, O Lord, and do not remember iniquity forever. Now consider, we are all your people.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

The Psalm is read responsively by half verse, breaking at the asterisk. The leader reads the first line and the congregation responds with the next line.

Psalm 80 vv1-7,16-18

- 1 Hear, O Shepherd of Israel, leading Joseph like a flock; *
shine forth, you that are enthroned upon the cherubim.
- 2 In the presence of Ephraim, Benjamin, and Manasseh, * stir up your strength and come to help us.
- 3 Restore us, O God of hosts; *
show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.
- 4 O Lord God of hosts, *
how long will you be angered despite the prayers of your people?
- 5 You have fed them with the bread of tears; *
you have given them bowls of tears to drink.
- 6 You have made us the derision of our neighbors, *
and our enemies laugh us to scorn.
- 7 Restore us, O God of hosts; *
show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.
- 16 Let your hand be upon the man of your right hand, *
the son of man you have made so strong for yourself.
- 17 And so will we never turn away from you; *
give us life, that we may call upon your Name.
- 18 Restore us, O Lord God of hosts; *
show the light of your countenance, and we shall be saved.

The Second Lesson

1 Corinthians 1:3-9

Grace to you and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ. I give thanks to my God always for you because of the grace of God that has been given you in Christ Jesus, for in every way you have been enriched in him, in speech and knowledge of every kind - just as the testimony of Christ has been strengthened among you - so that you are not lacking in any spiritual gift as you wait for the revealing of our Lord Jesus Christ. He will also strengthen you to the end, so that you may be blameless on the day of our Lord Jesus Christ. God is faithful; by him you were called into the fellowship of his Son, Jesus Christ our Lord.

Reader The Word of the Lord.

People Thanks be to God.

Please stand, as you are able, and turn to face the Gospel.

The Holy Gospel

Mark 13:24-37

The Celebrant says

The Holy Gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ according to Mark.

People Glory to you, Lord Christ.

Jesus said, "In those days, after that suffering, the sun will be darkened, and the moon will not give its light, and the stars will be falling from heaven, and the powers in the heavens will be shaken. Then they will see 'the Son of Man coming in clouds' with great power and glory. Then he will send out the angels, and gather his elect from the four winds, from the ends of the earth to the ends of heaven.

From the fig tree learn its lesson: as soon as its branch becomes tender and puts forth its leaves, you know that summer is near. So also, when you see these things taking place, you know that he is near, at the very gates. Truly I tell you, this generation will not pass away until all these things have taken place. Heaven and earth will pass away, but my words will not pass away.

But about that day or hour no one knows, neither the angels in heaven, nor the Son, but only the Father. Beware, keep alert; for you do not know when the time will come. It is like a man going on a journey, when he leaves home and puts his slaves in charge, each with his work, and commands the doorkeeper to be on the watch. Therefore, keep awake - for you do not know when the master of the house will come, in the evening, or at midnight, or at cockcrow, or at dawn, or else he may find you asleep when he comes suddenly. And what I say to you I say to all: Keep awake."

Celebrant The Gospel of the Lord.

People Praise to you, Lord Christ.

Please be seated.

The Sermon

The Rev. Russell Bohner

The Nicene Creed

Please stand, as you are able. Said together.

We believe in one God,
the Father, the Almighty,
maker of heaven and earth,
of all that is, seen and unseen.
We believe in one Lord, Jesus Christ,
the only Son of God,
eternally begotten of the Father,
God from God, Light from Light,
true God from true God,
begotten, not made,
of one Being with the Father.
Through him all things were made.
For us and for our salvation
he came down from heaven:
by the power of the Holy Spirit
he became incarnate from the Virgin Mary,
and was made man.
For our sake he was crucified under Pontius Pilate;
he suffered death and was buried.

On the third day he rose again in accordance with the Scriptures;
he ascended into heaven
and is seated at the right hand of the Father.
He will come again in glory to judge the living and the dead, and his kingdom will have no end.

We believe in the Holy Spirit, the Lord, the giver of life, who proceeds from the Father and the Son, who with the Father and the Son is worshiped and glorified, who has spoken through the Prophets.

We believe in one holy catholic and apostolic Church.
We acknowledge one baptism for the forgiveness of sins.
We look for the resurrection of the dead,
and the life of the world to come. Amen.

The Prayers of the People

A Reader leads the prayers

Lord Jesus, give your healing grace to all who are sick and suffering.

People: Come, Lord Jesus.

We pray for all who have died, remembering those in our Parish Prayers and those we name now (Silence). Lord Jesus, grant them eternal rest.

Celebrant Lift up your hearts.

People We lift them to the Lord.

Celebrant Let us give thanks to the Lord our God.

People It is right to give God thanks and praise.

Please stand or kneel, as you prefer. The Celebrant continues

It is truly right and just, our duty and salvation, always and everywhere to give you thanks, almighty and eternal God, through Jesus Christ our Lord, because you sent your beloved Son to redeem us from sin and death and to make us heirs in him of everlasting life; that when he shall come again in power and great triumph to judge the world, we may rejoice to behold his appearing. Therefore, joining our voices with Angels, Saints, and all the company of heaven, we proclaim your glory as we sing,

Setting: From Missa de Sancta Maria Magdalena, Healey Willan (1880-1968) Reprinted under ONE LICENSE #A-730475. The Hymnal 1982

The Celebrant continues

You are Holy, O Lord, and all you have created gives you praise, for through your Son our Lord Jesus Christ, by the power and working of the Holy Spirit, you give life to all things and make them holy, and you never cease to gather a people to yourself, so that from the rising of the sun to its setting, a pure sacrifice may be offered to your name.

As we celebrate the memorial of your Son's saving Passion, his wondrous Resurrection, and glorious Ascension into heaven, and as we look forward to his second coming, we offer you in thanksgiving this living and holy sacrifice.

The Celebrant elevates the bread, saying

On the night before he died for us, our Lord Jesus Christ took bread and, giving you thanks, said the blessing, broke the bread, and gave it to his friends saying, "Take this, all of you, and eat of it, for this is my Body, which is given for you. Do this for the remembrance of me."

The Celebrant elevates the cup, saying

As supper was ending, Jesus took the cup of wine and, giving you thanks, gave it to his friends saying, "Take this, all of you, and drink from it, for this is the cup of my blood, which is poured out for you and for many for the forgiveness of sin. Do this for the remembrance of me."

Therefore, as your faithful people,

Said together

We proclaim your death, O Lord, and profess your resurrection until you return in glory.

O Lord, we humbly implore you, by your Holy Spirit graciously to make holy these gifts of bread and wine we have brought to you for consecration that they may become the body and blood of your Son our Lord Jesus Christ at whose command we celebrate these mysteries.

Look, we pray, upon the offering of your Church and grant that we, who are nourished by the body and blood of your Son and filled with your Holy Spirit, may become one body, one spirit in Christ. Make of us an eternal offering to you so that we may dwell with you, and you with us. May this sacrifice of our reconciliation, we pray, O Lord, advance the peace and salvation of all the world. Be pleased to conform in faith and charity your pilgrim Church on earth, and in your compassion, O merciful God, gather to yourself all your children scattered throughout the world.

The Celebrant elevates the consecrated bread and wine and says

All this we ask through Jesus Christ, our Lord. Through Christ, and with Christ, and in Christ, O almighty God, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, all glory and honor is yours, for ever and ever.

People AMEN.

The Celebrant says

And now, as our Savior Christ has taught us we are bold to say,

Said together

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy Name,
thy kingdom come,
thy will be done,
on earth as it is in heaven.

Give us this day our daily bread.

And forgive us our trespasses, as we forgive those who trespass against us.

And lead us not into temptation,
but deliver us from evil.

For thine is the kingdom,
and the power, and the glory,
for ever and ever. Amen.

The Celebrant elevates the consecrated bread and breaks it saying Alleluia. Christ our Passover is sacrificed for us;

People Therefore let us keep the feast. Alleluia.

The Celebrant elevates the consecrated gifts, saying
The Gifts of God for the People of God.

People Thanks be to God.

In union, O Lord, with your faithful people at every altar of your Church, where the Holy Eucharist is now being celebrated, I desire to offer you praise and thanksgiving. I remember your death, Lord Christ; I proclaim your resurrection: I await your coming in glory. And since I cannot receive you today in the Sacrament of your Body and Blood, I beseech you to come spiritually into my heart. Cleanse and strengthen me with your grace, Lord Jesus, and let me never be separated from you. May I live in you, and you in me, in this life and in the life to come. Amen.

The Blessing

The Celebrant says

May the light and grace of the Holy Spirit remain with you, that you may await the second coming of Christ vigilant in prayer and with songs of praise on your lips. And the blessing of almighty God, the Father, and the Son, and the Holy Spirit, come down on you and remain with you for ever.
